

Bigotry is alive and well...

... and flourishing at two Corner restaurants.
Gay people, and those "accused" of being gay, have repeatedly been refused service and asked to leave.

Gays have grown tired of this sort of harassment. We are tired of the double standard of behavior enforced upon us. And the day has long since passed when we would accept such treatment silently.

Action is needed to remedy this discrimination. Collective action—by gays and straights, by everyone who believes in justice.
